

MORAY CEILIDH CLUB NEWSLETTER
NOVEMBER 2003

Ceilidh Time Is Here Again.....already! New Elgin Hall is our next venue on Saturday 22nd November when we'll be dancing to 'Shandrix' featuring Sandy Brechin, a familiar name to all you Ceilidh Club stalwarts. Ticket sales are well under way and as numbers in the New Elgin Hall are restricted you should send for your tickets sooner rather than later in order not to be disappointed. (£5.00 for adult members and £9.00 for non-members).

Those of you who were lucky enough to attend our last ceilidh at Miltonduff Hall must agree that the whole night was superb. We had just the right number of people, everyone was in just the right mood and the band, 'Ceilidh Mor', were fantastic. This was yet another night where there seemed to be an element of magic in the air which affected everyone, even 'Ceilidh Mor' who can't wait to perform for us again in the future.

Please let me remind you that our web-site is up and running. You can check it out by logging onto www.moraycc.org

You'll be pleased to learn that three more ceilidhs have been arranged as follows:-

Saturday 7th February 2004 - Bishopmill Hall - Dancing to 'Ceilidh Minogue'

Saturday 13th March 2004 - Miltonduff Hall - Band To Be Arranged.

Saturday 24th April 2004 - New Elgin Hall - Dancing to 'Box of Bananas',

So get those dates noted in your diaries! Tickets for 'Ceilidh Minogue' will be available at the next ceilidh.

Sorry that this newsletter is a bit short and to the point this time; the committee are all either extremely busy or down with the flu. Anyway, we look forward to seeing you all on the 22nd and as usual offers of help and/or raffle prize donations will be gratefully received.
