

MORAY CEILIDH CLUB
NEWSLETTER
November 2006

Hello all,

Welcome to the November 2006 edition of the Moray Ceilidh Club newsletter.

The Halloween Ceilidh was a great success. A fantastic atmosphere enhanced by the music provided by Bella McNabb. There was a wonderful turn out, and a few people even wore a costume. The costume competition was won by Tom Hardie, one of our committee members ... honestly, we don't rig these things; the prizes were awarded by the band!

The next Ceilidh will take place on 25th November at Bishopmill Hall, Elgin. Music will be provided by Ceilidh Minogue, one of our regular Ceilidh bands. Check out their website www.ceilidhminogue.freemove.co.uk, where you can also find some dance instructions, if you want to brush up on your skills. Don't worry though our events are always informal, you don't have to be step perfect, it's a great place to just have fun!

How would you like to inspire the next generation of Ceilidh dancers? Elgin High School is looking for a person to teach their pupils to Ceilidh dance. If you are interested or know someone that might be please contact Steve or Caroline Coomber.

For those people who can't get enough Ceilidhs Altyre Estate (near Forres) is holding a series of Ceilidhs in their hall. The Ceilidhs are from 8pm-12, tickets are £6 and it is B.Y.O.B. The dates are; Saturday 18th November, Sunday 31st December and Saturday 10th February 2007 (to be confirmed). If anyone is interested they can phone Jim Gordon on 01309 676305.

Should any of you find yourselves in Edinburgh on a Tuesday night you could visit one of the regular Ceilidhs that are held at The Lot. For more information visit the website at www.edinburghceilidhs.com or alternatively telephone 0131 225 9922.

Stop press! Moray Ceilidh club is now officially 'cool' thanks to a mention on Radio One orchestrated by one of our wonderful members!

A big 'Thank you' to everyone who donated a prize for us to raffle so far this season. All donations are gratefully received for the rest of the season. If you have a prize that you would like to donate, please hand them in at the door on the night of the Ceilidh.

Assisted by the Arts Council for Moray

We are looking to add photographs to our website in order to show people what we get up to during our Ceilidhs. If you have a photograph that you would like to be included, or if you feel that you would not like to be included in any photographs that are published on our website, please contact one of Moray Ceilidh Club committee members.

A quick reminder for all those people who haven't yet renewed their Moray Ceilidh Club membership to do so before the season reaches full swing. Remember the earlier you join the more value you get!

Tickets for all the Ceilidhs in the 2006/07 season can be booked online following the link from the Moray Ceilidh Club website (www.moraycc.org). This is a simple way of booking all the tickets you need for all of the Ceilidhs. Just head for the 'Events' page, click on the Ceilidh that you wish to attend and follow the instructions on 'The Booth' website that the link takes you to. It is well worth booking your tickets as soon as possible, we had to turn away members last year who turned up to some of the more popular Ceilidhs without tickets. We are always sorry to have to do this, but some venues dictate that ticket numbers are restricted due to dancing space. You don't have to be a member to come along to the events, so invite all your friends along for a fun evening of dancing.

Don't forget to keep an eye on the Moray Ceilidh Club website for future changes and information. Should you misplace information or newsletters sent to you, they can also be found on the website under 'News'.

We look forward to seeing you all on the 25th November, at Bishopmill Hall in Elgin.

Best Wishes
Sam Lander Stow
