

MORAY CEILIDH CLUB NEWSLETTER April 2007

Hello all,

Welcome to the April 2007 edition of the Moray Ceilidh Club newsletter. Yes, we are delighted to see another Sell Out Ceilidh at Bishopmill Hall with a great mix of new and familiar faces dancing the evening away to the energetic and lively band The Marwicks (now going under the name of 'The Round House Ceilidh Band'). Several new dances were called keeping us all on our toes - quite literally!

Sorry to those we had to turn away at the door it is not something we like doing but we must restrict numbers to ensure room to dance!

Moray Ceilidh Club would like to say a big 'Thank you' to all the Moray Ceilidh Club members (and non-members) who have supported us through this 2007 season by coming to the Ceilidhs. We pride ourselves in successfully running Ceilidhs suitable for all the family that are attended by all generations. It is great to see teenagers enjoying themselves and throwing themselves into the dancing. Just a reminder, in order to assure the family Ceilidh atmosphere, it is important that a responsible adult accompanies children and teenagers.

Also a big thank you to all those that gave such generous donations to the raffle and of course a thank you to all you raffle ticket purchasers!!

Our last Ceilidh of the season is on the 21st of April, again at Bishopmill Hall where we will dance to the very popular Iron Broo Ceilidh Band. I would encourage you to book your tickets on the booth (go to the Events page our website, www.moraycc.org) to ensure you are not turned away at the door; it is worth noting that the booth is open until 5pm on the day of the Ceilidh.

We'll be holding our AGM in June, and will be looking back at the 2007 season. If you would like to offer any suggestions or become a member of the Moray Ceilidh Club committee, then contact Julie Stewart (see below for phone number).

Don't forget to keep an eye on the Moray Ceilidh Club website for future changes and information. Details of all upcoming Ceilidhs can also be found on the website, as well as information about membership and committee members.

We look forward to seeing you all on Saturday 21st April at Bishopmill hall in Elgin, for the last Ceilidh of this 2007 season. Also, a brief reminder that, as this is the last Ceilidh of this season, memberships will need to be renewed before next season - e-mail to follow about this and the AGM.

Best Wishes
Sam Lander Stow
