

Moray Ceilidh Club Newsletter
March 2008

Hello everyone,

Nearly time for our next Ceilidh - the second last of the season. It's on the 15th of March in Bishopmill Hall and we have the Jing Bang Ceilidh Band providing the music. They hail from Aberdeen and promise to give us an occasion to remember [in a good way!] with music on the fiddle, whistle, keyboard and banjo.

We encourage you to book your tickets on 'The Booth' [go to the Events page on our website www.moraycc.org], it is worth noting that 'The Booth' is open until 5pm on the day of the Ceilidh. You can still also get tickets from Julie or Steve - see details at the end of the newsletter.

Our last Ceilidh was on the 26th of January at Miltonduff on a wild, wet and windy evening dancing to Hogtie, another Aberdeen band. Once again a great night had by members and guests [and the band enjoyed themselves too!]. A big thanks to Anna for playing the pieces for our wee Burns music quiz.

Don't forget to look on the website to see photos of the Ceilidhs and bands. If there is a photo of you on the website that you do not want to be there just let any of the committee know and we will remove it.

Treasurer for 2008/2009. Do you have the ability or inclination to take on this role? We also are looking for new committee members, details in future newsletters but speak to Julie if you are at all interested.
